EVERYONE LOVES A PARADE

MILLBURY - The gloomy Sunday morning of June 27 started off threatening and then burst into rain with short periods of downpours. Certainly NOT good weather for the Lions Club's annual Independence Day Parade. But, almost miraculously, as the 1:00 PM starting time approached, the rains stopped, and the roads began to dry. By comparison to other years, people were slow to line the streets for viewing the parade. But by the time the stately Charles F. Minney Post VFW Color Guard proudly carried the American Flag to the patriotic strains of marching music played by the Millbury High School Band, followed by the queue of marchers snaking their way along Millbury streets, sidewalks and porches were lined with viewers eager to witness another gala display.

George D'Auteuil, owner of Frank Rubbish Removal, was chosen Grand Marshal of this year's parade because of his support of and participation in this annual event.

This year, the Chronicle continues its tradition of printing an edition of parade pictures. We hope our readers understand that it is impossible for us to take the hundreds of pictures that we do and be able to identify those people in them. As it is, we finally have worked out a system of changing films on the several cameras while still shooting. The parade waits for no one, and the Chronicle makes every effort to capture as much of it as is humanly possible. However, we hope that you will enjoy going over the pictures and recalling your favorite moments of the parade while identifying family members and friends.

A little neighborly help.

When you need help, a good neighbor will find a way to lend a hand. (In this case, a horse.)

And helping neighbors is what we do for a living.

The one goal of our independent community bank is to support our local communities, residents and businesses.

Your deposits are put to work right here where we all live and work. They're invested in loans to help the local economy and to create local jobs.

No distant office can order us to ignore the needs of our neighbors and to invest your savings somewhere else.

Nobody can tell us not to lend you a hand — and that makes us easy to remember when you choose a bank. . .

We're the neighborly one with the horse.
